Annual Conference Commemorating Kristallnacht
Thursday, November 15, 2012

The Holocaust in Poland: A Terrible yet Extraordinary History

Program Schedule

8:30 a.m. Registration and coffee

9:00 a.m. Greetings, introduction

9:15 a.m. Keynote speaker: Timothy Snyder, Professor of History, Yale University
“The Holocaust in Poland: A Complicated History”

10:45 a.m. Break

11:00 a.m. Stanlee Stahl, Executive Director of the Jewish Foundation for the Righteous.
“The Righteous of Poland”

11:30 a.m. Testimony by Frances Malkin, Holocaust survivor, with excerpts from the documentary film, No. 4 Street of Our Lady, which tells the story of Mrs. Halamajowa, a Polish farmer, who hid Fran, her mother and nine members of her family in a barn

12:00 noon Lunch

1:00 p.m. Performance of Life in a Jar: The Irena Sendler Story, followed by talk back with cast and director, affiliated with Uniontown High School in Kansas where the play was written and first performed in 1999