Drew Community Policing Initiative - Logic Model

INTER-RELIGIOUS ENGAGEMENT AND COOPERATION

Key Questions

How might we address problems related of lack of trust, understanding and empathy between police and the communities they serve?
In what ways might interventions help improve these relations?
What activities and experiences may increase positive encounters between police and the public?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Goal</th>
<th>Rationale</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Increase respectful attitudes toward one another and positive relationships between police and the communities they serve</td>
<td>Positive interactions lead to greater understanding, empathy and respect, which encourage police and public to have better relations</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Inputs/Resources

AmeriCorps Members, State and County Prosecutor’s Offices, NJ Office of Homeland Security & Preparedness (NJOHSP) NJ Interfaith Advisory Council, Community Inter-faith Partners, CRCC

Activities

- AmeriCorps Members assigned to Prosecutor’s Office and NJOHSP, work with Drew to offer security training and coordination to faith groups, facilitate interfaith cultural exchange activities
- 20 organizations receive security training, 100 workshop attendees, 6 events for inter-cultural and religious exchange

Outputs

Short Term Outcomes

- Short Term Outcomes: AmeriCorps Members work directly with NJOHSP to serve as security coordinators, offer workshops and host interfaith gatherings

Mid Term and Long Term Outcomes

- Mid Term Outcomes: Increase preparedness for houses of worship and religious/ethnic groups and organizations. Increased engagement and understanding
- Long Term Outcomes: Safer communities through improved attitudes, cooperation with law enforcement and security agencies, reduce hate crimes