- Application For Admission: Applications are normally accepted for the January and June start terms. The priority dates for applications are December 1 for the January start term, and May 1 for June start term. Applications may be accepted after these dates on a space available basis. Merit scholarship funds may be limited for those who apply after the priority dates.

- Official Transcripts: One copy of final transcripts of academic records from all colleges, professional schools, and universities attended (including Drew) is required, whether or not a degree was granted. Request that the Registrar seal the transcript in an official school envelope and sign across the seal. Do not open these envelopes or break the seal. You may also have official copies sent directly to the Office of Graduate Admissions. Applicants who are currently enrolled in school must submit current transcripts, as well as a supplementary transcript of subsequent grades with a notation of degrees granted as soon as it is available.

- Letters of Recommendation: Two letters of recommendation are required. Letters ideally should be from your most recent instructors. Although academic recommendations are preferable, if you have been out of school for a significant period of time, you may submit one letter from an employer, supervisor, or other person familiar with your intellectual abilities and most recent activities. Please have the recommender seal the letter in an envelope, sign across the seal, and return it to you for enclosure in the application packet. You may also have the recommender send the letter directly to the Office of Graduate Admissions.

- Application Fee: Applications must be accompanied by a non-refundable $35 application fee. Checks should be made payable to Drew University.

- Personal Statement: Please attach a two to three page essay in which you address the personal and intellectual interests that led you to apply to the MFA program. How long have you been writing seriously? What have your studies been up to this point? Are you ready to accept criticism of your work? What are the strengths and weaknesses of your writing?

- Resume or C.V.: Applicants should attach a current resume or C.V.

- Manuscript: Please submit examples of your work. Applicants to the MFA in Poetry must submit ten pages of poetry. Applicants to the MFA in Poetry in Translation must submit ten pages of translations, including the original and a literal translation of each poem.

- Critical Essay: Please include a two to four page essay that demonstrates your ability as a critical writer. It is preferable to discuss one poem that is particularly important to you. What are the central ideas and craft elements of that poem?

- Influences: Please submit a list of five books that have been most influential to you as a writer.

- Financial Aid: Financial aid comes in two forms, academic merit scholarships, and need-based aid. Applicants for scholarships and aid must fill out the Drew Supplemental Financial Aid Form and return it to the Office of Financial Assistance.

  Academic merit scholarships range from 20% to 60% of tuition. The application for admission serves as an application for merit scholarships. To indicate interest in merit scholarship consideration, check the appropriate box on page one of the admission application.

  Need-based aid takes the form of loans and work-study. In order to be considered for need-based aid, an applicant must fill out the federal FAFSA form available at http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/ and return it to the processor. To have the report sent to Drew, please use School Code 002603.
