Drew University Center for Civic Engagement was honored as ‘Community Service Honoree’ at the Neighborhood House Annual Gala on Friday, November 2, 2012 at the Hyatt Hotel in Morristown, New Jersey.

Since 1898 the Neighborhood House has offered recreational, educational and cultural services to thousands of men, women and children of all races and creeds. Programs created at the House have gone on to become venerable Morristown and Morris County institutions in their own right.

The Morris Museum and the Visiting Nurse Association got their start at the Neighborhood House. Neighborhood House programs and activities have empowered thousands of individuals in their pursuit of equality and self-sufficiency over the years.

Video salute a highlight of $100K gala for Morristown Neighborhood House afterschool programs

Posted by Kevin Coughlin on December 3, 2012

For more information visit:

http://morristowngreen.com/2012/12/03/video-salute-a-highlight-of-100k-gala-for-morristown-neighborhood-house-afterschool-programs/