PREFACE

This revised bibliography has been prepared with assistance from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of The United Methodist Church. The following resources do not provide exhaustive coverage of all areas of Methodist and Wesleyan scholarship. This edition presents a select list of basic resources for students and instructors of seminary-level courses in United Methodist history, doctrine and polity, and to indicate minimum standards for libraries to support such courses.

In addition to standard texts, past and present, emphasis has been placed on selecting the best contemporary critical interpretations in print. Following the format of earlier editions the materials in this revision are arranged topically. For additional resources, including topics and materials not included in this edition consult Kenneth E. Rowe’s 4th edition of United Methodist Studies: Basic Bibliographies.

The compiler is in debt to Kenneth E. Rowe for his work on earlier editions of the text. Darryl W. Stephens provided additional recommendations that broadened the scope of this project. Luther Oconer was especially helpful in the cover design and layout of this resource. Any mistakes or omissions are solely the responsibility of the editor. Corrections, additions and deletions for the next edition of this bibliography are welcomed and should be sent to: Christopher J. Anderson, Methodist Librarian and Coordinator of Special Collections, United Methodist Archives Center, Drew University, 36 Madison Avenue, Madison, New Jersey, USA 07940. Office: 973-408-3910 or Fax: 973-408-3836 or E-mail: cjanders@drew.edu.

CIEMAL (Consejo de Iglesias Evangelicas Metodistas de America Latino/Council of Evangelical Methodist Churches in Latin America)

In 1969, the UMC's conferences in Latin America were granted permission to become autonomous churches. At the same time, they organized themselves into this regional council together with Methodist Churches in Mexico and Cuba.

Consultation on Church Union (COCU) 1962-2002

A consultation on church union among nine churches in the USA begun in 1962. An agreed statement on Covenanting rather than organic merger, adopted in 1988, was affirmed by the UMC General Conference in 1996.

Consultation on Church Union. Churches in Covenant Communion.
Princeton, NJ: COCU, 1989. Proposed plan of church unity in which member churches accept eight "elements" which include a common apostolic faith, recognition of members in one baptism, and mutual recognition and reconciliation of the ordained ministry. Member churches would retain their own denominational names, identity, church governments, liturgy, and patterns of ministerial training and placement. Churches Uniting in Christ, founded in 2002, is both an outgrowth and successor to the Consultation on Church Union. For official United Methodist response to the CUIC plan, see appropriate resolutions in the 2008 edition of Book of Resolutions.

Historical Surveys

Barratt’s Chapel, Cradle of Methodism. A visual introduction to one of the UMC’s historic shrines in Frederica, near Dover, Delaware, erected in 1780. In this chapel on November 14, 1784 Wesley’s emissary to America, Bishop Thomas Coke, laid out Wesley’s plan for an independent church. Coke celebrated American Methodism’s first Lord’s Supper here during that visit. Produced for the Friends of Barratt’s Chapel, 1997. 20 minutes [VHS].

Burning Bright. Through a combination of live action photography and historic graphics this film presents major aspects of the history of The United Methodist Church and other churches of Methodist origin in the United States. Produced by United Methodist Communications and the General Commission on Archives and History, 1975. 32 minutes [VHS].

Clayride: A Gallop through Methodist History. An animated claymation history of the United Methodist Church from John Wesley to the 1980s. Nashville: EcuFilm, 1984. 5 minutes [DVD].

From the Word Go. This magazine format resource gives a variety of glimpses into the history and tradition of The United Methodist Church. Produced by United Methodist Communications, 1984. 35 minutes [VHS].

One Faith, Many Visions, Depicts United Methodist heritage and contemporary expressions of ministry. Produced for the Bicentennial of American Methodism by Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, DC, 1984. 30 minutes [VHS].

Our United Methodist Heritage. Written, Produced and Directed by Donald Hughes. Nashville: EcuFilm, [199-]. 35 minutes [DVD].
Politeness and Enthusiasm, 1689-1791. In the 18th century two forms of Christianity appeared: that of the elite--with an educated, "reasonable" God--and a more active form of Christianity, which discovered God to be gracious and experienceable. Essential background for understanding the rise of Methodism. Part of The Christians series, produced by McGraw-Hill Book Co., 1984. 38 minutes [VHS].

This is Methodism. Video of the story of Methodism in Great Britain from John Wesley to the present day. Produced by the Methodist Publishing House, London, 1990. [VHS].

Why I’m United Methodist. Video depicts the essence of being Methodist. Its historical heritage from the life of Wesley to the union in 1968 represents a connection that extends from a local to a global cross section related to mission. New York: The Women’s Division, The General Board of Global Ministries, The United Methodist Church, 2001. 9 minutes [VHS].
