

Graduate Division of Religion

DREW
UNIVERSITY

DREW
THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL

Women's & Gender Studies Concentration

Name: _____ Date Submitted: _____

Phone Number: _____ E-mail Address: _____

Area: Biblical Studies & Early Christianity Historical Studies Liturgical Studies
 Religion and Society Theological and Philosophical Studies

The Women's Studies concentration can be pursued through any of the Ph.D. programs of the Graduate Division of Religion. Students pursuing the concentration must complete the following:

1. The Women's Studies Interdisciplinary Seminar (WMST 712);
2. At least three additional courses in which the student's work focused centrally on women, gender, sexuality or feminist analysis.
3. One comprehensive exam that focuses on women, gender, or feminist analysis (this exam would ordinarily correspond with the interdisciplinary comprehensive exam).

If all of the above requirements have been met, please complete sections 1 – 3. Please submit this form to the GDR Administrative Office after receiving the signatures of the adviser and area convener.

SECTION 1: Women's Studies Interdisciplinary Seminar (WMST 712)

Semester Completed: _____ Instructor Name: _____

SECTION 2: Coursework Verification Card

Please submit one women's studies coursework verification card for each semester in which relevant coursework is undertaken. If more than one relevant course is taken within the same semester, all can be noted on the same card.

SECTION 3: Comprehensive Examination

Title of Exam: _____

Date/Semester Taken: _____ GDR Verification: _____

This section to be completed by faculty and staff:

Advisor Signature: _____ Date: _____

Area Convener Signature: _____ Date: _____

Academic Standing Cmte. Signature: _____ Date: _____