Guest Policy

Guest passes are valid for one day ($5.00) and should be dated on the front of the card. One week passes ($20.00) are available to summer conference members that are approved by HCH.

All valid ID holders in the Drew community are extended the privilege of bringing one guest at a time. All guests must be accompanied by a valid ID holder and must register at the Simon Forum Front Desk. Present your ID card to the Front Desk Attendant. Guests are required to fill out the “Awareness, Acknowledgment and Assumption of Risk Agreement” and pay the guest fee (Checks should be made out to: Drew University, with the “Simon Forum Guest Pass” in the memo line. Please make sure that the name and address are on the top, left-hand corner.)

A guest pass will then be issued with the following information: Guest’s Name, Host’s Name, Host’s Drew ID #, Date, and signature of Desk Attendant. Guests should hold onto their guest pass.

Guests must adhere to the general rules of the building as they relate to proper attire and behavior!

Please Note:
1. Drew ID holders under 18 are not eligible to sponsor guests
2. Children (ages 13+), spouses and domestic partners of students, faculty and staff are able to use the Simon Forum without their host present if they possess a valid Drew ID card. To obtain a free Drew ID card they must have to be accompanied by their host to the Business Office in Holloway Hall during their business hours.

Special Needs: Other groups and individuals having special needs not addressed by policies should contact the Director of Recreation at x3444 to verify their eligibility to use the recreational facilities. To ensure sufficient time to review special requests users should submit their inquiry at least two weeks prior to the desired usage date.
