The European Union has become one of the most important actors in the international political and economic system. Gain an in-depth understanding of the past, present, and future of European integration by visiting Brussels, the effective capital of an integrated Europe, and London, the growing center of “Euroskepticism.” While in Europe, students will have direct access to the major political and economic institutions of the European Union and will have the opportunity to interact with EU politicians, members of the EU bureaucracy, domestic political leaders, and interest groups in London and Brussels.

Pre-departure course PSCI 256/ECON 250 offered in Spring 2015 is required to participate in the program.

Facility Directors: Bernard Smith & Jason Jordan

Eligibility Requirements:
1. Minimum GPA of 2.0
2. Good disciplinary standing

Academic credit: 4 credits

Credits can fulfill requirements for:
- Economics major and minor
- Political Science major and minor
- Business Studies major and minor
- European Studies minor
- Off-Campus Experience

Interests & Career Appeal: Students with undergraduate, graduate and career interest in political science, economics, international business, or European studies will find this program of particular interest.

Program Cost: $3,950 includes tuition, lodging, some meals, local transportation, and guided visits and cultural excursions. Roundtrip airfare, most meals, and personal expenses are not included.

Center for Global Education
Drew University, Madison, NJ 07940 • www.drew.edu/globaled • 973-408-3438

Find us on Facebook